AUSTRALIAN ASSOCIATION OF SPECIAL EDUCATION Inc

aase

quality education for all

NATIONAL RESEARCH AWARD

The AASE National Research Award has been established to provide an opportunity for research that can support evidence based practice in the education of students with special needs.

aase

quality education for all

NATIONAL RESEARCH AWARD

Objectives of the AASE National Research Award

To support research

- to identify effective teaching strategies to advance the learning of students with special needs
- to identify optimum provision of and access to quality education services for students with special needs
- to identify quality teacher education and professional development leading to positive outcomes for students with special needs.

aase

quality education for all

AASE National Research Award
$10,000 available!

Closing date
25 May 2013

PROTOCOLS

- The AASE Research Award will be funded through the Australian Disability Achievement Foundation, managed by AASE National Council.

- The AASE National Council will establish a n AASE Research Award Committee which will manage the Award in conjunction with the AASE National Executive and appropriate university research bodies.

- The AASE Research Award to the value of up to $10,000 will be made bi-annually or as deemed appropriate by the AASE National Council.

APPLICATIONS

Applicants must submit a description of their prospective research project including:

1. Applicant's names, academic background, current positions, roles, organisation
2. Proposed aims/outcomes of project
3. Rationale/background for project including a brief literature review
4. Methodology for research
5. Significance and relevance to the objectives of the AASE National Research Award and AASE
6. Budget – costs/other funding sources
7. Timeline for project
8. Arrangements for obtaining ethics approval for the project (for example, University Ethics Committee/State Education Department)
9. Details of a nominated University Research Office to manage funds)

APPLICATIONS cont'd

- Applications should be limited to 5 pages.

- CLOSING DATE FOR APPLICATIONS 25 May 2013

- Enquiries about the Award

Chris.Kilham@canberra.edu.au

Applications to the Executive Officer:

bknight@bigpond.net.au

Reporting

- Annual reports are required for AASE sole funded and jointly funded projects.
- Completion of all projects will be negotiated within a 3 year period.
- A final report is required at the end of each research project.
- On conclusion of the research a research paper may be offered to the Editorial Committee of the Australasian Journal of Special Education, and/or a report to the NSW Special Education Perspectives for consideration for publication.

- On conclusion of the research a research paper may be offered to the Editorial Committee of the Australasian Journal of Special Education, and/or a report to the NSW Special Education Perspectives for consideration for publication.

- Where appropriate and relevant to the theme of the conference program, the researcher may be invited to present the results of the research at the annual AASE National Conference following the submission of the research report.

aase
quality education for all

PAYMENT OF FUNDS

The Research Funds will be provided in the following way –

- The AASE Treasurer will contact the nominated University or agency.
- Funds will be paid to the University/agency on receipt of an invoice.
- This schedule can be varied in discussion with the Award Committee

Enquiries about the Award to Chris.Kilham@canberra.edu.au